Our Heritage

Family owned, the House of Fremaux Delorme was founded in 1845 in Lille by Ernestine Fremaux. Amaury Fremaux, President of the Group and his brother, Alban Fremaux, General Director are the 6th generation of Fremaux that have recently succeeded their father, Dominique Fremaux, Director of the group since the 1980s.

Our Savoir-Faire

The House of Yves Delorme is recognized by the French government as an « Enterprise of Living Patrimony, » indicator of the highest quality of its manufacturing that originates from an authentic, rare and mastered savoir-faire, cultivated over 175 years. Yves Delorme works with the most skilled artisans in each area : engraving, embroidery and weaving.

These techniques are transmitted within our specialized studios in Nieppe and Sevelinges, in France, with over 125 expert craftsmen and craftswomen who work diligently to guarantee the quality of each detail, rendering the style and quality that the House affirms.

Sustainable Weaving Studio

Yves Delorme maintains an auto-sufficient and ecological weaving studio in the small village of 1500 inhabitants named Sevelinges. It is in this particular region with a long tradition of textile weaving that, since 1920, the brand has developed cutting-edge industrial tools specialized in toweling and jacquard table linens weaving, all made with the most noble of fibers, thus maintaining the excellence of competitive French manufacturing.

Among its artisans, the brand is honored to count two « Chevalier des Arts et des Lettres,» the highest honor bestowed by the Ministry of Culture, as an acknowledgement of their precious savoir-faire as well as their capacity to transmit and preserve it.

Tailoring Studio & Training Center

The House of Yves Delorme opened a new tailoring studio in Spring 2020 in Nieppe in the Hauts-de-France region, thus insuring the French manufacturing of its bed linens.

The energy efficient building, well adapted to the most modern work environments, houses all the stages of tailoring and the 80 men and women who are all expert tailors in the luxury industry.

Within this studio, the Yves Delorme tailoring training center was recently established in order to transmit these precious traditions to future generations and to insure the future of its savoir-faire and a production in France that has thrived for over 175 ans.

Membre du
COMITÉ
COLBERT

The Group's brand, Yves Delorme is invested as a member of the Comité Colbert since 2001, with the goal to promote French savoir-faire and art de vivre.

The Comité Colbert unites approximately 80 of the most prestigious French and European luxury Houses and cultural institutions.

Bergan Delorme

Fremaux Delorme accelerates its development in the Hotel & Hospitality sector.

Since June 2022, The Maison Bergan has joined the textile Group from the North of France, thus becoming Bergan Delorme. For nearly 30 years, Bergan has been developing and manufacturing household linens of quality standard for restaurants, boutique hotels, and luxury hotels.

Bergan Delorme will develop its business based on the natural synergies of the merger, offered by an Entreprise du Patrimoine Vivant (a living heritage company) with two weaving and tailoring workshops in France, and a presence in more than 50 countries worldwide. The Company will henceforth develop and offer two Collections : its historic Bergan line and a line signed Yves Delorme.

Our Commitment

Faithful to its corporate values, the Group takes a strong environmental stand and utilizes only natural raw materials produced under the highest quality and ethical standards. Since 2020, the collections of the Yves Delorme brand are manufactured almost entirely with organic cotton and with Supima® cotton for a minority of products.

The Group has invested in energy efficient work spaces that operate according to the principles of a circular economy, as well cutting-edge technology in its tailoring and weaving studios and always favors the reduction of the transportation of materials.

Blue Standard Verified by Oceanic Global

Fremaux Delorme is proud to have obtained the 3-star verification with the Blue Standard by Oceanic Global for its efforts to protect our blue planet. The 3-star seal, the highest level awarded, recognizes its commitment to eliminate harmful single-use plastics from its business, exceed local waste management regulations, and implement « Blue » actions that further the sustainability of operations.

Our Ecological Commitment

*Each season, Mother Nature enchants and inspires us.
In return, we are committed to the preservation of this fragile and complex world that belongs to us all.*

A large majority of our products are labelled STANDARD 100 by OEKO-TEX® following a certified and controlled manufacturing process. It is the first label that meets the needs of consumers guaranteeing the absence in certified articles of substances that are harmful or may pose a risk to human health.

Organic Cotton & PIMA Cotton

With the desire to source raw materials of the highest quality, a large majority of our products are made with organic cotton from certified agriculture. We also manufacture with PIMA cotton for select products. Grown in the United States, it is an exceptionally soft and fine cotton that meets the strictest requirements.

I O S I S

IOSIS creates a world of gentle fantasy, featuring an imaginary bestiary and flora, illustrated with style. Tapestry jacquards, woven in Belgium, are the main medium for this unbridled inventiveness. The excellence of European savoir-faire is showcased in decorative pillows, throws and totes in palettes of solid colors, shimmering velvets, shades of linens softened by washing, wools as fine as mist or deep and soft, like the comfort of home.

Bergan specializes in customized luxury linens for high-end hotels since 1993.

The aesthetic, luxury of exceptional materials and comfort nourish the inspiration of the Bergan brand in its offer of bed linens, bath linens, down duvets & pillows, table linens and decorative textiles.

Bergan home linens have been favored by the finest establishments; 4 and 5-star hotels, palaces, luxury spas, and award-winning restaurants, due to the attention given to details and by the wealth of customization and personalization options offered. Bergan, sleep at a hotel, like nowhere else in the world !
